

Chief Executive Officer, ULI Europe

LISETTE VAN DOORN, MODERATOR

As chief executive of ULI Europe, Lisette van Doorn is responsible for the development of the Institute's activities across the region, including its renowned pan-European conferences and over 250 local meetings and events across 14 countries. She is also responsible for the ULI Charitable Trust, which raises money to advance ULI's mission and philanthropic activities across Europe.

She joined ULI from LIRE, her own consultancy business, which advises international institutional real estate investors and fund managers on strategy, organisational optimisation and portfolio structuring.

Prior to this, Lisette was country manager for CBRE Global Investors where she managed a portfolio of assets in Italy and fund manager of two shopping centre funds with assets in Spain, Portugal and Italy.

Before joining CBRE Global Investors, She was founding chief executive for INREV, the European association for Investors in Non-Listed Real Estate Vehicles for four and a half years. She started her career at ING Investment Management, where she held account manager and assistant controller positions before being made managing director of research & strategy for ING Real Estate Investment Management Europe.